

Salamonie's Senior Mondays: 2014

Seniors age 50 and over are invited to attend the monthly Senior Monday Carry-in Luncheon at Salamonie Interpretive Center, Lost Bridge West SRA, Andrews. After the meal, a special speaker presents a unique program. Attendees should plan to bring their table service, a prepared dish to share and $1 donation to help defray costs of the provided main dish.

To register or for more information, contact Upper Wabash Interpretive Services (UWIS) at 260-468-2127. Upper Wabash Interpretive Services (dnr.IN.gov/uwis) is at 3691 S. New Holland Road, Andrews, 46702.

- | | |
|---------|--|
| May 5 | "Wildflower Talk & Walk" with Upper Wabash Interpretive Services Interpretive Naturalist Laura Whiteleather. Indoor presentation followed by an easy, woodland stroll searching for blooming beauties. |
| June 2 | "Archeology in Your Community" with Wade Tharp. Wade is an archeologist with the DNR's division of Historic Preservation and Archeology. |
| July 7 | "Boy Scouts of America." with Steve Higgins. BSA district executive Steve Higgins shares the history and purpose of the Boy Scouts of America. |
| Aug. 4 | "Meet Your Managers." Meet the Salamonie Reservoirs talented team of management. Ron Hileman, Michael Rea and Justin Harrington will share a bit about themselves and their dreams for the future for the Salamonie Reservoir Recreation Areas. |
| Sept. 8 | "Preserving Your Family History." Tamara Hemmelein, the Assistant Director of Local History for the Indiana Historical Society, will show us how to preserve family photos, documents and other items of family history. |
| Oct. 6 | "The Underground Railroad in Indiana." The DNR Division of Historic Preservation and Archeology's Director of Special Initiatives, Jennie Regan-Dinius, will relate the roles that some Indiana residents played in the historic underground railroad. |
| Nov. 3 | "The Lower Salamonie River Watershed Project." Krista Rose, director of the Lower Salamonie River Watershed Project, will inform us on the status of the Salamonie River waters and what the project is hoping to accomplish. |
| Dec. 1 | "Christmas in the Confederacy." Professor of history at Purdue University, Robert E. May, will be presenting a program on Christmas time during the Civil War. |